THE PHILADELPHIA Real Estate Record AND BUILDERS' GUIDE.

DEVOTED TO REAL ESTATE, BUILDING, ARCHITECTURAL AND INSURANCE INTERESTS

[ENTERED AT THE PHILADELPHIA POST-OFFICE AS SECOND CLASS MATTER.]

VOL. XVII.—No. 1.

PHILADELPHIA, WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 1, 1902

$5.00 PER YEAR.

Architect Notes.

E. R. Thompson, Youngstown, O., has prepared plans for a handsome fourteen-story dwelling to be erected at Erie, Pa., for C. W. Uhdey.

Frederick Porter, Butler, Pa., has prepared plans for two brick dwellings to be erected for Mr. W. E. Cochran. They will be well finished, provided with modern conveniences and will cost about $5000. The same architect has made plans for a brick-veneered dwelling for Dr. M. P. McElroy.

Seymour and Paul Davis, architects, of 907 Walnut street have posted plans in the estimating room of the Builders' Exchange for the new bank building for the First National Bank of Scranton, Pa. Details of this building previously noted. The electric lighting and fixtures also heating is reserved. Bids due January 9, 1902.

It is rumored that C. E. Schermerhorn, architect, 430 Walnut street, is at work on plans for a hall for a Protestant Episcopal church uptown. It will be built of stone and will be two stories high and will measure 60x84 feet. The first floor will have a gymnasium, office, drill and guard rooms and on the second floor will be a social hall with a stage.

William L. Price & Bros., architects, 731 Walnut street, are working on plans and specifications for the new apartment to be built at Broad and Jefferson streets on the site of the late Joseph Singler's residence. It will be seven stories high; will be built of brick, stone and terra cotta and of slow burning construction. It will have all the latest appointments. In our next issue we will be able to give more later details.

Harry A. Macomb, architect, Real Estate Building, is working on plans for a frame cottage for Mr. Joseph Cross to be erected at Seaside Park, N. J. It will be built of frame with brick foundations and will have shingle roof. It will be two and a half stories high and will contain fifteen rooms. The finish of the first floor will be hardwood and second floor cypress. It will be lit by electricity. Will be ready for bids January 15th.

Architects will, in a short time, be asked to draw rough plans for the new cathedral to be erected at Harrisburg, Pa., to be submitted some time in March. Bishop Shanahan has not yet decided as to the style of plans—Gothic, Romanesque and Byzantine will be considered. A committee will visit New York, Philadelphia and other cities to obtain suggestions, and after the first of July the contract will be awarded. It is said that five or six years will be required to complete the work.

Hales & Ballinger, architects and engineers, 1200 Chestnut street, have just completed plans for alteration to the first floor of the hall at 325-37 North Thirteenth street, to be fitted up as an automobile depot for the Dahmeyer Automobile Company. The owner, J. Henry

Mitchell, will take bids. Also have finished plans and will ask for bids at once from Philadelphia and Cleveland builders for a four-story stone bakery annex measuring 50x198 feet to be erected at Cleveland, O., for S. S. Mervin. The building will be built of brick with Ohio stone trimmings and will be of slow burning mill construction. Bids due January 9th.

Edwin F. Durang, architect, 1200 Chestnut street, has plans nearing completion for a new church edifice in Atlantic City, N. J., for St. Nicholas' Roman Catholic Church. It will be located at the corner of Tennessee and Pacific avenues and will measure 61x150 feet. It will be built of stone with red tile roof on the Romanesque style of architecture. On either end of the church will be square towers with chimneys. The plans provide for an interior finish in oak with marble and tile floors and wainscoting. It will probably cost about $100,000. Bids will be asked shortly after the first of the year. Local and Philadelphia bidders will be asked.

Mantle Fielding, Jr., 110 South Fourth street, architect, has prepared plans and sent same to builders for estimates for a stable to be erected at Chestnut Hill, Phila., for Robt. Glendinning, Esq. It will be two stories and basement high and will measure 48 x 50 feet. It will be built of stone. The basement will contain cow stable, engine and dynamo room; the first floor three single and one box stall, carriage house, two bed rooms and bath room; the second floor lofts. Bids due January 2, 1902. The following builders have been invited to bid: W. R. Dougherty, Jacob Myers & Sons, W. A. Hurlock & Sons and W. J. Grubler of Germantown.

Addison Hutton, architect Stephen Girard Building, has sent out plans and specifications for estimates for five cottages to be built at the White Haven Sanitarium at White Haven, Pa. The plans show a four two-story neat cottages to be built of brick and to have slate roof that will measure 38x22 feet each, each building will contain eight wards for two patients in each. Will be heated by hot water and lit by electricity. The following builders have been invited to bid Doyle & Doak, J. E. & A. L. Pennock, R. C. Ballinger & Co. and the Manufacturers' Contracting Co., of this city, and E. T. Long, of Wilkes-Barre, Pa. Bids due January 3, 1902.

Horace Trumbauer, architect, Land Title Building, has completed plans and specifications and sent same to builders for estimates for a handsome residence for Joseph B. McCall, president of the Pennsylvania Heat, Light and Power Co., to be built at the northwest corner of Forty-second and Walnut streets. It will be a three-story dwelling with gabled slate roof, to measure 49 feet 8 in x 63 feet 4 in. The exterior walls to be brick laid in Flemish bond with limestone and granite trimmings. The first floor will contain reception room, library, billiard and dining-room, kitchen, pantry and servant room. Four bed rooms, a bath, sewing and linen room on the second floor. The third floor will be guest chamber, nursery, store room and servants' quarters. The first two floors will be of polish oak, four of the rooms will have handsome carved marble fire places. The following builders are bidding on same: Doyle & Doak, Geo. F. Payne & Co., F. H. Hoover & Sons, John R. Wiggins and A. Raymond Raff. Bids due January 4th.

Architect Joseph M. Huston, Witherspoon Building, has been selected by the Building Commissioners to erect the new capitol building at Harrisburg. Mr. Huston's design was submitted in competition and was one of five recommended by Professor Ware of Columbia College, as worthy of the award. The building is to cost $4,000,000, which is double what is ought to cost. The commission appointed to dissipate this enormous sum is: Governor Stone, Congressman Graham, of Allegheny; Superintendent of Public Instruction Scheaffer, of Lancaster; Senator Wm. P. Snyder, of Chester and Edward B. Bailey, a banker, of Harrisburg. That they will do it to the satisfaction of those most interested there is no room for reasonable doubt. The four other architects who submitted plans which merited commendation according to the report of Professor Ware were Addison Hutton and Herman Miller, of Philadelphia; F. J. Osterling and Trimble & Stevens, Pittsburg; and James H. Warner, Lancaster, Pa. These under the arrangements will receive $1000 fee in the way of compensation. Mr. Huston is at present in Louisville, Ky.

The plans for the new Montgomery county court house to be built at Norristown, Pa., on the site of the present structure are quite elaborate. The first floor to the right and left of a spacious rotunda will be devoted to offices of the recorder, prothonotary, register clerk of courts, sheriff, coroner, superintendent of schools, commissioner, comptroller and directors, each with adjoining private offices besides these there is a large room for future occupancy. A wide marble staircase, branching to the right and left leads to the second floor on which courts are located. They are Court No. 1 and Court the Orphans' Court, a law library with Judges' office adjacent, a grand jury room grouped near which are witness and jury room reached by private entrances; the district attorney's office and private room and rooms for judges next to court room. Above the orphans' court will be a large room suitable for a historical society or something similar. The appropriation is $350,000. The exterior will be built of granite and will be two stories and basement high. Messrs. Schermerhorn & Reinhold, architects, 430 Walnut street, have these now posted at their office and are ready for bids. Every bidder may bid on these plans who will deposit a certified check for $7500. Bids are due January 23, 1902.

JOHN N. GALLAGHER,
Proprietor, Publisher and Editor.

PHILADELPHIA, WED'Y, JAN. 1, 1901

WITH this issue the "Philadelphia Real Estate Record and Builders' Guide" enters upon its seventeenth year of publication.

It is a long way back since the first number of the paper was submitted to the building trades and real estate interests of this section of the country for support. That it has received support is self-evident from its continued and uninterrupted publication.

Its publisher has earnestly sought to give a fair and just equivalent to both subscribers and advertisers as well as to justly merit the respect of the entire community.

The task has been a pleasant one, for while involving hard and constant work and application, it has been largely remunerative in the army of friends it has acquired as well as in the words of encouragement and praise the paper and publisher have received.

It has commanded the confidence and esteem of architects and builders because it has respected their secrets, as well as the confidence they reposed in it, and it takes pride in the statement that, during its many years of publication it has never, in a single instance, departed from their wishes when expressed as to the publication of information they gave to its representatives.

Thanking its friends and patrons for their many favors in the past, it wishes everybody a happy and prosperous New Year.

THE "London Times," recently, in a long editorial criticizing economic conditions which prevail in England, referred to the tyranny of the members of trade unions toward their fellow-members who were disposed to treat their employers honorably by giving a fair day's work for a fair day's pay. It was emphasized that in such an event the workman was subjected to the worst abuse, and that vile names and curses were not only heaped upon him, but he was liable to be badly beaten, even to the jeopardy of his life.

This sentiment, according to the "London Times," has extended so far and become so general that in the building construction trades 400 bricks are the limit for a bricklayer's day's work, and the man who lays more does so at his peril.

The "Times" also stated, that in municipal work there are records showing that the laying of 70 bricks for a day's work, if not the union limit it was the average, and that this statement was beyond refutation.

Now, it is fair to assume, that if this sentiment dominates the working forces engaged in construction work in England, that it also influences those of all other branches of labor, skilled or otherwise.

In Germany this influence does not seem to exist; if it does exist it is not apparent, and no mention has been made of it; but there is another influence which has been digging the grave for Germany's commercial interests even more surely than the arbitrary wrongs from which the decent, honorable workmen of England have suffered for years.

The fact is that beer guzzling among the factory people of Germany has become so general that they have grown stupid and incompetent, and it is stated that the keen-witted Kaiser has not only observed this, but has recommended the enforcement of rigid rules as a curative.

These, then, are the two factors which are responsible for the loss of the commercial power of these two great nations more even than Yankee push and energy.

It is the Yankee way to strike the iron while hot, and it can be truly said that bigotry and stupidity allied and important forces for harm even under the best auspices—are the hottest now in both counties, and Yankee enterprise is striking hard and heavy blows with telling effect.

Can any one believe that a change of American tariff laws will act as a curative for cruel bigotry, mental stupidity and physical apathy?

Such a change might fill our country with cheap goods, and this might have a temporary telling effect upon our own industries; but it would not solve the problem as against American manhood and the energy of its working forces.

The curative rests with the working forces of England and Germany, and until the beer kettle is ostracized from German factories and the English recognize the equities and justice that should control the wage earner everywhere, America has nothing to fear from either direction, for the problem is a social one, for without a change of morals the industries of both countries are doomed.

The Mechanics' Insurance Co.'s Calendar for 1902.

With the self-same steadfast adherence to the interests of its policyholders, which the Mechanics' Fire Insurance Company, of this city, expresses through its capable and conservative management, it remains loyal to its original selection of its yearly calendar.

As a business calendar, that of the Mechanics, Fire Insurance Company is excelled by none; free from superfluous ornamentation, it is strikingly effective; besides having each holiday of the year printed in red ink. Office building, 500 Walnut street. Simon J. Martin, President; John A. Snyder, Secretary.

We are indebted to the Lesley & Trinkle Company, selling agents for the Giant Portland and Union Rosendale Cements, 22 and 24 S. Fifteenth street, this city, for a very beautiful and unique calendar for 1902.

The calendar appeals directly to the lovers of golf for the player, the ball and the tools are there in miniature as well as the score book, hence it is useful as well as ornamental.

Samuel H. French & Co.'s Desk Calendar.

To be remembered by old friends with a choice bit of everyday usefulness, such as is the desk note pad calendar for 1902 of Samuel H. French & Co., is highly complimentary as well as gratifying. It bears a quaint reminder of our usefulness to each other, as its frontispiece which says in pure and simple English: "Lost you forget, may this calendar be a reminder that your favors are valued by us," is as suggestive as it is original. This firm was established fifty-seven years ago. Long may it live and prosper!

An Attractive Calendar, The U. G. I. Co.'s "Little Chef" Makes Another Bow.

A most attractive calendar has been issued for general distribution by The United Gas Improvement Company. The bright little chef, already identified with the company's calendar, is pictured back of his gas range critically tasting one of the savory dishes steaming on its top. The picture is a clever demonstration of the ease and comfort with which one can cook on a gas range. Judging from the little fellow's countenance, to cook with gas is a pleasure. The surroundings are neat and daintily clean, characteristic of the modern gas range kitchen.

The soft, artistic coloring of the picture makes it an ornament to any room, while its practical usefulness is evident in the large, easily read figures on the calendar pad.

This useful and pretty New Year's gift may be obtained free, upon request, at any office of The United Gas Improvement Company.

Nearly 800 New Charters Granted Under Gold Standard Law.

Washington, D. C., Dec. 27.—The number of new charters granted to national banks since the passage of the gold standard law on March 14, 1900, has reached 784. Failures, voluntary liquidations and consolidation have cut down the net increase in the number of banks to about 700. The number of banks doing business on March 14, 1900, was 3617. The number at the close of November last was 4308.

The authorized capital has increased in the meantime about $51,000,000, or from $616,308,095 to $667,334,195. There are still on file with the Comptroller of the Currency about 100 approved applications for bank charters which will result in actual organizations.—The "Philadelphia Record."

Masters of Architecture.

Forty of the World's Greatest Builders Commemorated at Harvard.

It is the way of the world to remember the monumental and beautiful building and to forget the architect who designed it. For this reason a list of the great builders like that which has been inscribed on tablets on the beautiful new architectural building at Harvard is far less familiar to most persons than a list of the great poets or the great painters would be, though perhaps no less interesting. Altogether there are forty names, one group consisting of Greeks and Romans, a second of the Italians of the renaissance period of architecture and the third including the English and French builders of the same period.

The name of Bramante, who completed St. Peter's at Rome and partly rebuilt the Vatican, stands by itself above the main entrance. The other Italians are Alberti, fra Giocondo, Arnolfo, Brunelleschi, Giotto, Michelozzo, Cronaca, Palladio, Sansovino, Vignola, Michael Angelo, Raphael, Peruzzi, Sangallo and Buschetto, the last named a Byzantine Greek who built in Italy. The French and English architects are Perrault, Lemercier, Delorme, Gibbs, Lescoat, Steinbach, Montreau, Cormont, Luzarche, Wren, Wykeham and Walsingham. The Greeks and Romans are represented by the names of Iodorus, Anthemius, Apollodorus, Daphnis, Vitruvius, Diocretus, Pithius, Ictinus, Libon, Callierates, Mnesticus and Polyolitus.

In all this list a few, like Bramante, Giotto who planned the beautiful Campanile at Florence; Sir Christopher Wren, who built St. Paul's, in London, and one or two others, may suggest characteristic architectural works, but that Ictinus designed the Parthenon at Athens, for example, or that Perrault was one of the builders of the Louvre is generally forgotten or unknown, though their work is a household word.—"Exchange."

He proposes to finish both operations within 786 working days. Being the sole bidder for the sand, labor and supplies for the Upper and Lower Roxborough filter plant D. J. McNichol was also awarded that contract. His bid $826,947. R. A. Malone & Co.'s bid for the Oak Lane reservoir was less by half than the others received. The new Broad exchange building now being erected in New York will be a wonderful structure even in this age of great buildings. It is stated that in this remarkable structure 20 passenger elevators will carry up and down 50,000 people per day, or 25,000,000 per year. Upward of 24,000,000 pounds of structural steel will be used in the building of its huge skeleton, and its walls will consume 10,000,000 brick, 600,000 square feet of fireproof arches and 1,800,000 square feet of plaster. Two miles of marble corridors will facilitate internal locomotion. While it is in process of construction 4000 men will be employed upon it continuously for one year. The building will weigh 180,000,000 pounds and will be the largest structure of its kind in the world.

William H. Allen, has just purchased the plot of ground at Thirtieth and Oxford streets and will begin shortly after the first of the year to build 181 dwellings on the tract which has a frontage of 460 feet on Thirtieth street and 334 on Oxford street, two streets, Hollywood and Myrtlewood, which will be cut through the plot, will have two story residences to measure 15 feet 3 inches x 52 feet. On Oxford street will be three stories 16 x 51 feet 3 in. On Thirtieth street will also be three-story houses to measure 15 feet 3 in. x 65 feet 6 in. All the dwellings will be built of pompeian brick front with porches. Plans were drawn by F. H. Kelsker and A. R. Duray, architect. The estimated cost of the operation will be $400,000. The operation will be financed by Hazlett & Nuss, real estate brokers, 631 Walnut street.

At an interview with Mr. Krenshaw, of the real estate department of the Girard Trust Company of Broad and Chestnut streets, he confirmed the statement that his company was the actual purchaser of the northwest corner of Broad and Chestnut streets and on Broad street up to the West End Building and on Chestnut street to 1423 Chestnut street inclusive. The company will erect a magnificent building which will extend up to the West End Building and about 130 feet on Chestnut street. This structure, Mr. Krenshaw stated, would probably not be built for at least two years, as some of the tenants of the acquired property have leases that would not expire until that time. It was further learned that the company has sold its present building to the Franklin Bank, which now occupies leased quarters in the Real Estate Building. The price paid is not stated, but it is believed to be a considerable advance over the $1,500,000 which stands upon the books of the Girard Trust as a taxable asset. The Franklin National Bank will not secure possession of the Girard Trust Building until the proposed new structure is erected on the opposite corner.

below the head of tide water. The system to be used is known as the Separate System for the complete removal of sewerage from the different townships. To accomplish this object in the most satisfactory manner three things are required, viz: Constant and rapid flow of sewage, thorough flushing, and adequate ventilation. The strong, steady flow caused by the gradual fall of 550 feet from Paoli to tide-water could not be improved upon for sanitary engineering purposes. The smooth surface of glazed, vitrified earthenware pipes, regularly flushed with water and supplied with water and supplied with numerous field's automatic flush tanks, ensure a clean flushed system free from concentration. The thorough ventilation under the existing conditions is purely a matter of sanitary engineering and has been successfully planned by experienced engineers.

Some Portland Cements may show a high tensile strength at a short period, and yet be so defective that the work done with them will disintegrate with age. This is due to imperfect composition. The Dyckerhoff brand is invariably of correct chemical composition, and the work done with it is invariably strong and absolutely durable.

[ENTERED AT THE PHILADELPHIA POST-OFFICE AS SECOND CLASS MATTER.]

VOL. XVII.—No. 2. PHILADELPHIA, WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 8, 1902. $5.00 PER YEAR.

Architect Notes.

Hale & Ballinger, architects and engineers, 1200 Chestnut street, have extended the time for bids from January 9th until January 13th for the new bakery annex to be built at Cleveland, Ohio, for S. S. Mervin.

The statement in the daily paper that John D. Allen, architect, Betz Building, is preparing plans for a flat or apartment house to be built at Broad and Lombard streets in this city is without a grain of truth, nor has he any idea of preparing any such plans.

J. Jerome Deery, architect, Betz Building, has finished plans and sent same to builders for estimates for the new Catholic church, of St. Veronica, to be built at Christopher street, near Washington street, New York. Five builders in all are bidding, one in Philadelphia and four in New York. Bids are due January 20th.

The commissioners of the District of Columbia will receive competition sketches for a municipal hospital for the District of Columbia up to noon of February 8, 1902. Two other competitors will receive $1000 each. The commissioners reserve the right to purchase any other sketches or design that might be submitted, by paying the sum of $1000 for each sketch.

Heacock & Hokanson, architect, 931 Chestnut street, have begun the preparation of plans for two more new houses to be built in Glenside for W. T. E. Roberts. They also are preparing plans for alterations and additions to a house, near the inlet at Atlantic City, N. J. The work will include new porches a two-story addition, measuring 16 x 45 feet and a steam heating plant.

C. E. Schermerhorn, architect, 430 Walnut street has finished revised plans and sent same to builders for estimates for a three-story and basement tenement building to measure 34x75 feet to be built at the southeast corner of Manton and Sheridan streets. Bids due January 10, 1902. Maguire & Emory, Burd P. Evans, Jos. Price, W. H. Lower, R. Monroe Stott, John R. Wiggins and Kendrick & Co. are bidding.

Plans are approaching completion in the office of Cope & Stewardson, architects, 320 Walnut street, for the new medical laboratories for the University of Pennsylvania. There are to be three two and a-half-story buildings of brick and stone parallel to one another; two similar buildings run perpendicular to these; thus, forming two hollow squares side by side. The extension of the central building is very ornate in design.

Perry Co., merchant tailors, will erect a new business and office building at the Southeast corner of Sixteenth and Chestnut streets in Philadelphia. Firm of architects are now engaged in preparing plans. It will be six or eight stories high. The site measures 61 x 161 feet. The first and second floors and basement will be occupied by Perry & Co. and the upper floors will be fitted up as offices. It will be a year and a half before the actual work of construction will be begun.

Frank Watson, architect, 1208 Chestnut street, has plans in preparation for a new store and business building to be erected at the Southeast corner of Thirteenth and Chancellor streets for Jules Junker. It will be four stories high and will be built of brick and terra cotta and will measure 36x50 feet. The first floor will be a store and the balance of the building will be used for business purposes.

Harry E. Witmer, architect, 1432 South Penn Square, has finished plans for a manufacturing plant to be built at Hagerstown, Md., for the National Window Screen Co. The plant includes factory building and power house. Each will be built of frame. The former will measure 70x125 feet and will be 30 feet high and the latter will be one story high and will be 20 x 30 feet. The owner will take bids.

Mantle Fielding, Jr., architect, 110 South Fourth street, has prepared plans and sent same to builders for a stable and farm building for Robt. E. Strawbridge, Esq., to be built at Bryn Mawr, Pa. They will be built of stone and frame and will contain all the latest appointments of buildings of their kind. The following builders have been invited to bid: W. J. Grubler and W. R. Dougherty, of this city; John D. Croll, of Radnor and Grey Brothers, of Rosemont, Pa. Bids due January 9th.

Stearns & Castor, architects, Stephen Girard Building, are making plans and will invite estimates soon for the Allison Memorial church to be built at Sixty-third and Vine streets, which is to be erected by Mrs. W. C. Allison as a memorial to her husband. It will be stone, one story high with a basement and will be used for Sunday school purposes. The first floor will contain Sunday school room, gallery, individual bible class room, library and general reading room. The basement will be fitted up as a gymnasium. It will be heated by steam heat, wired and lit by electricity and will have a brick tower fire escape.

Bailey & Truscott, architects, 421 Chestnut street, have finished plans and have sent same out to builders for estimates for a handsome cottage for Prof. A. E. Hancock, of the Haverford College, to be built at Haverford, Pa. It will be two and a-half stories high and will be built of dark brick and half timber and will have a shingle roof. The interior will be in hardwood finish. It will contain twelve rooms with bath and pantry. It will measure 45 x 57 feet with a kitchen L. It will be heated by hot air, wired for electricity and will contain all the latest improvements. It will be English in design. Six builders will be asked to bid, mostly local builders.

Newman, Woodman & Harris, architects, Real Estate Building, will finish plans and send them out to builders for estimates on Friday or Saturday of this week for the residence of Major-General Jno. B. Brooke, of the United States Army, which is to be built at Rosemont, Pa. The structure will be of ornate design, two stories high, to be built of stone and plaster finished, measuring 80 x 35 feet. Details of this house previously noted.

In the same office are working on plans for an addition and alteration to house of Mr. Thomas Pateon at Villa Nova, Pa. Addition calls for the erection of a new wing to present residence and the house to have general interior improvements.

Building and Real Estate Notes

E. J. Hedden, builder, 14 South Broad street, has received contract to erect the stable for Matthew Baird, Jr., to be built at Ardmore, Pa. It will be a two-story structure of stone and will measure 60 x 25 feet. It will cost about $5,000. Plans and specifications by McIlvain & Roberts, architects, Land Title Building.

The Special Sewerage Committee of Lower Merion township, composed of Wm. E. Barrett, M. E., Horace W. Smedley, C. E., and Chester E. Albright, C. E., Philadelphia, after having made investigations in various cities in England, announce that the filtration process will be used for this township. Probable cost of system $200,000.

Jacob Myers Sons, builders, Juniper and Sansom streets, have plans posted for a residence for Prof. Albert E. Hancock to be built on the grounds of the Haverford College at Haverford, Pa. It will be English in design and will be built of dark brick and half timber, and will be two and a half story high. Plans by Bailey and Truscott, architects. Bids due January 10.

N. Reimig, of Elizabeth, N. J., builder, has been awarded the contract to do the carpenter work on new stock house for the Peter Breidt's Brewing Co. at Elizabeth, N. J. Plans and specifications by Emil Hartman, architect, 514 Walnut street of this city. Mr. Hartman also informs us that the office building for the Keystone Brewing Co., of York, Pa., will be built by sub-contractors.

Bids due January 17, 1902.

PHILADELPHIA, WED'Y, JAN. 8, 1902

Architect Frederick's Opinion.

BALTIMORE, January 2, 1902.

TO "THE PHILADELPHIA REAL ESTATE RECORD AND BUILDERS' GUIDE,"

DEAR SIR: I do not often indulge in writing "encomiums," probably am apathetically remiss when I should be just the contrary; and, after the many years during which you have made me an appreciative recipient of your bounty, I deem it most fitting to congratulate "The Real Estate Record" on the completion of its sixteenth year, its amply deserved prosperity and popularity, and to sincerely wish it further increase with each year to come.

Its every issue is always welcome and carefully read; its vast fund of information relative to building and allied interests is ever of instructive and practical service.

Above all, its elevated tone and just principles relative to honest work, honest municipal administration and public improvements, ever unhesitatingly enunciated and advocated, have made it a respected factor in the past, as in the future it cannot help but add to its valuable sphere of influence, not only in its own direct community, but wherever its encouraging words may be read, and touch well-disposed hearts.

With best wishes I remain

Sincerely yours,
GEO. A. FREDERICK, Architect,

The Pennsylvania Fire Insurance Co.'s Calendar.

The Pennsylvania Fire Insurance Company, through its efficient vice president, Jno. L. Thompson, has generously supplied us with several of its attractive calendars for 1902.

The American Fire Insurance Company's Calendar.

The self-same attractive American flag calendar, original with the American Fire many years ago, is still retained for 1902, because there can be nothing made so much in keeping with the company's title and characteristics.

A good, reliable, carefully managed company is the American Fire, and its office building is at 308 and 310 Walnut street. It was organized in 1810.

Wm. Krause & Son's Calendar.

The calendar with the four handsome horses in working harness and hitched before a large truck bearing the inscription of Wm. Krause & Son, 1621-23 N. Fifth street, makes as pretty a picture as anyone need want to own. It is suggestive of something more than empty sentiment, because it represents the rugged side of practical business life, without which the world would be a chaos of topsy-turvyness.

Wm. Krause & Son are contractors for concrete foundations, patent pavements for sidewalks and cellars, etc., and this firm's calendar for 1902 is the most attractive example in design and usefulness we have seen this year.

Building and Real Estate Notes.

Wm. H. Eddleman, builder, 453 Green lane, Roxborough, Phila., are bidding on extensive alterations to the mansion of Miss Eliza Levering, Green lane, Manayunk.

Cramp Co., builders, 1421 Filbert streets, are bidding on two-story granite and fire proof building, measuring 35x100 feet for the Scranton National Bank to be built at Lackawanna and Wyoming avenues, Scranton, Pa. Plans and specifications by Paul & Seymour Davis, architects, 907 Walnut street.

The following is the list of builders who are bidding on the new court house to be erected at Norristown, Pa., from plans of Schermerhorn & Reinhold, architects: Henderson & Co., William Miller & Son, Pittsburg; Hiram Miller & Sons, Roydhouse Arey & Co., Cramp & Co., M. P. Wells. Bids due Jan. 23, 1902.

Joseph Bird, builder and owner, 1029 Race street, will build a factory and manufacturing building at 1029 and 1081 Race. It will be a seven-story building with a frontage of 33 feet 4 inches and a depth of 93 feet. The interior walls to be brick and galvanized iron with grilles window. It will be built on the slow burning mill construction plan, with a brick tower fire escape. The cost will be about $35,000.

Work on the superstructure of St. John's Parochial Hall on Rector street east of Cresson street, Manayunk, planned by Mr. Frank Watson, architect, 1208 Chestnut street, will be begun in a few days. The structure will be four stories high and will measure 59x175 feet, it will cost about $45,000. John W. Fritzinger, builder, of Manayunk, will do the carpentering work and the American Bridge Company the iron work.

An Increase in These Improvements Over 1900 of 77, While the Cost in 1901 was $115,000 Greater.

Total Expenditures for Improvements
Worth Recording in 1901, Amounts to $26,914,646.

In our report of construction work for the twelve months of 1900 we showed a falling off from 1899 of 478 new buildings of all kinds and a smaller investment by $673,666.

Our record for 1901, when compared with 1900, shows an increase of 1633 new buildings of all kinds more than were constructed during that year, and an increase in the money invested of $8,197,760.

When compared with the record of 1899 that year is beaten by 1901 by 1159 new buildings and the investment is greater than in 1899 by $7,523,800.

While this is the creative or constructive end of the proposition only, it is necessary to compare the buying and selling influences which prevailed during these years.

In 1899 the records of transfers showed that there were 11,950 properties transferred, representing a cash consideration of $63,835,684.67.

In 1900, while there was considerable increase (210) in the number of transfers, the cash consideration was $1,082,957.10 less.

In 1901 our tables give a record of 13,195 conveyances, representing a cash consideration of $84,339,888.19. This is 1035 more than were recorded in 1900, and the cash consideration is greater by $1,587,154.62.

Of course, even in the face of this increase in the number and value of the properties that have changed hands in 1901 over the results of 1899-1900, there are many who fail to recognize any improvement in real estate.

Data of a similar nature, pertaining to other interests, is accepted generally as true indications of prevailing conditions, but for some reason the real estate pessimist is so radically pessimistic that he remains oblivious to changes for the better, regardless of evidence and facts.

The results in operative building in 1901 are illustrated by the 3625 two-story dwellings erected and in course of erection and the 339 three-story. The cost of these was respectively $7,250,000 and $3,568,200, there were consequently 133 more two-story dwellings in 1901 than in 1900 and 164 more three-story.

The following table of construction work of this character will enable comparisons since 1887:

	Two-story Dwellings	Three-story Dwellings	Four-story Dwellings	Total
1887	4569	1629	3	6201

1901	3625	939	26	4590
	70,240	23,658	293	94,181

Here, then, is a total of 94,181 dwellings erected in this city in 15 years, or a yearly average of 6278.

We read of unparalleled distresses among the agriculturists of both Germany and Russia as well as the idleness of the wage earners in the large cities of Europe; these are the influences which start the idea of emigration to new and prosperous countries and America will surely get its share.

In 1901 there were 11,809 marriage licenses issued in this city, and the question for each man to settle for himself is how far immigration, marriages and steady remunerative labor will go in creating a demand for dwelling houses; for up to the essential needs of a community like this the erection of dwellings is a yearly necessity beyond such a point they become speculative.

The industrial buildings erected in 1901 were 194 in number, while in 1900 there were but 141. Here, then, is a gain of 53, and while any yearly increase in these buildings means more labor and more pay, it also increases the need for homes.

There were 12 more warehouses erected in 1901 than in 1900; 3 more dye and dry houses, 9 more factories, 6 more engine and boiler houses, 3 more breweries and bottling houses, 9 more foundries and 11 more stores (not stores and dwellings).

Our table of industrial buildings erected in this city since 1880 will enable our readers to follow the phases of these buildings.

	1889	1890	1891	1892	1893	1894	1895	1896	1897	1898	1899	1900	1901

There are 83 miscellaneous buildings erected in 1900, while in 1901 there were 101, or 20 more. The investment in those of 1901 was $3,636,021, while in 1900 it was but $2,020,850.

It is of interest to keep track of the relation by percentage which industrial buildings hold to the total of yearly building construction.

	New Bldgs.	Indus. Bldgs.	Per Cent.
1889	10,250	296	2.8
1890	10,436	345	3.4

There are so many people who unintentionally impart to others incorrect and ridiculous information as to the number of new buildings erected yearly in this city, that we deem it necessary to give our table of yearly construction work since 1887.

The ground rents on the properties conveyed during 1901, $685,979.64, which, on a 6 per cent. basis, represents a further incumbrance on the property transferred of $11,432,694.00.

The sales of real estate at auction last year amounted to $3,570,415.16. This is an increase of $39,033.09 over the record for 1900.

The mortgage incumbrance on the real estate sold at auction amounted to only $13,900, while the ground rents were $3,477.02.

The names of the firms are Guest Keen Co., Limited; Borckow Vaughn & Co. and the Cansett Iron Co. A great part of the work is to be done in Philadelphia. That Great Britain recognizes the superiority of American methods is evidenced from the fact that Mr. Roberts was invited by the above English firms to cross the Atlantic and report on the changes necessary to equip the plants on a basis equal to plants of like character. In the United States his recommendations were immediately adopted and he was instructed to go ahead and complete the work as soon as possible. At Rahway, N. J., bids will be received until February 5th for the erection of a standpipe 25 feet in diameter and 125 feet high, including the necessary foundations and pipe connections from standpipe to existing water mains. At New York, N. J., bids will be received by the Armory Board, at the Mayor's office, until Jan. 14th for the material and work required in the erection and completion of the building; for the structural steel and ironwork, and for the installation of the plumbing and gasfitting in the proposed new armory for the 69th Regiment, on the westerly side of Lexington avenue, extending from Twenty-fifth to Twenty-sixth streets. Brigadier General James McLeer, Chairman Armory Building Commissioners.

Miscellaneous.

At St. Louis, Mo., the Prudential Building in East St. Louis was destroyed by fire last week. The loss was $75,000.

At New York, Miner's Eighth Avenue Theatre was destroyed by fire on January 1. The estimated loss is about $150,000. A new theatre, to be called the Majestic, will be erected in which to produce the spectacular plays of Klaw & Erlanger's. It will have a stage 50 x 108 feet and will have an auditorium with a seating capacity of 2000. It will front on Forty-second street 25 feet and 15 1/2 feet on Forty-first street in the Long Acre district.

The banking house of Speyer & Co. will erect a building for their own use on Pine street. It will be three stories high and 58 x 66 feet. — The Young Men's Christian Association is to build a new branch on Twenty-third street, west of Seventh avenue. The building will cost $500,000 and will be devoted for the most part to the renting of sleeping rooms at moderate cost to men. It will also contain an auditorium, baths, library and class rooms. — The building which the Sons of the Revolution are to erect on Fifty-fifth street will, if the present plans are carried out, cost, with the site, about $150,000. It will contain a museum and library, with a large assembly room. — John E. Howe, 307 West Twenty-ninth street, has prepared plans for a four-story brick and frame hotel to be erected at North Augusta, South Carolina for the North Augusta Land Company, of which James U. Jackson is the president. It will cost about $200,000. — Louis C. Mauree, 172 West Ninety-sixth street, has drawn plans for a brick and stone hotel and cafe, with stable in rear, to be erected at Yonkers, N. Y., for the Henry Ehal Brewing Company. Hermann F. Lippe & Bros. builders.

Northern Saving Fund Statement for 1902.

It must be particularly gratifying to the stockholders of the Northern Saving Fund & Trust Company, Sixth and Spring Garden streets, to recognize its steady yearly increase of assets, which is surely indicative of wise and efficient management, as well as a high degree of prosperity.

With a capital of $500,000 the surplus now equals the company's capital, besides which its undivided profits amount to $54,736.64, and that, too, after having distributed $17,500.00 as a semi annual dividend.

The deposit account has reached the enormous sum of $4,526,228.94. The company's assets amount to $5,598,468.58, invested in first-class securities: $500,284.84 in real estate mortgage loans, $1,072,494.88 in collateral trust loans, $1,561,870.53 in collateral demand loans, $159,318.95 in real estate, and $366,722.93 in cash, making a grand total of $5,598,468.58. W. Frederick Snyder is president, and Horace B. Pearson secretary and treasurer.

The Samson Cordage Desk Calendar.

The Samson Cordage Works, of Boston, Mass., has kindly favored us with its desk calendar for 1902, a handy and useful adjunct for desk work. The cash cord made by this concern is held in high esteem by carpenters and builders all over the country.

Its reliability has gained for it great favor, and this section from its first introduction in this market.

Its high grade "spot cord," purposely designated by colored spots as a trade mark, is as good and durable as it is possible to make a cash cord however great the cost.

The concern has built up an extended reputation based entirely on the superior quality of its products, and their present popularity is not at all surprising.

The Fire Association Calendar for 1902.

According to this company's statement on its calendar for 1902 its assets at present amount to $6,340,250.99, and that, too, after having paid losses since its organization in 1817 of over $83,000,000.

The calendar is built on sensible business principles. It is plain, yet attractive, with the title of the company in raised letters. Mr. E. C. Irwin is its president, Mr. T. H. Conderman, vice-president, and its office is at 407-09 Walnut street.

A Wonderful People.

Americans are so accustomed to reading of the frivolities and ebullitions of temper and extravagances of enthusiasm in France that they lose sight of other traits of the busy nation. The other side of the picture was shown on Saturday last, says the Philadelphia Times. Gangways leading to the ministry of finance were crowded with people awaiting their turn to subscribe to the new French 3 per cent. loan of $53,000,000 based upon the Chinese indemnity. In France the sensible plan is followed of making the bonds of small denomination, so that they may be as widely taken as possible. The amount is $20 each, only $3 of which is required in cash payment upon the subscription. The possession of even one of these bonds strengthens the government with the holder. It is not only wise as a political measure, but it is eminently just that the people should have this means of investing their savings. We are not surprised to read that the loan is already covered thirty times over. That means a vast amount of money, and it shows more impressively than any other fact the thrifty habits of the French workers.

It seems extraordinary that a people so closely confined should be able to offer so much money for investment but, we must remember that the French are not only industrious, but economical. Another important thing is that their high artistic development gives their labors a larger financial value. It is substantial proof of the direct monetary value of art. Sometimes we find practical Americans doubting the usefulness of art galleries and exhibitions and other means of education and exposition in the higher achievements of the race. But as a matter of fact these things are good financial investments. By developing talent and appreciation they make the products of the workers better, and at the same time create a wider market for the finer things.

JOHN N. GALLAGHER,
Proprietor, Publisher and Editor.

PHILADELPHIA, WED'Y, JAN. 22, 1902

MR. HENRY R. SHOCH has received the unanimous nomination of the Republican convention of the Twenty-ninth ward to succeed himself as a member of Select Council.

The honor of a unanimous nomination in these days of political jealousy is seldom accorded to any man however popular or worthy; but in the case of Mr. Shoch it is doubtful if there is a voter in the whole ward, of any party, whose esteem is worth having, who does not earnestly endorse the sentiment of the members of the convention, and prefer him as their ward representative in Select Council above any other that might have been selected.

Mr. Shoch, as an owner of real estate to an extent equal, if not greater, than any other citizen of his ward, knows and fully appreciates the kind of legislation that is most needed to conserve the interests of property owners.

That he has the courage of his convictions no one has ever questioned. His neighbors and friends, regardless of their political affiliations, are a unit in favor of his re-election, and justly so.

If the members of both branches of City Councils were regularly chosen from among the owners of real estate, and, indeed, if real estate ownership was once established as a qualification necessary to make a candidate eligible for election to Councils the results would have a far-reaching influence in the framing and passage of municipal laws as well as in the executive branches of our city government.

And why not? Is not real estate the reliable source of the city's revenue? Are not the owners of real property the greatest sufferers from iniquitous laws as well as mal-administration in executive places?

It is from among the class who possess a real property interest in the affairs of city government that our Councils should be selected and of this class Mr. Shoch is a prominent factor, besides possessing other qualifications which commend him to the citizens of the Twenty-ninth ward for re-election.

PHILADELPHIA, WED'Y, JAN. 29, 1902

The Penn Mutual gains 63 per cent.

The 54th Annual Report of the Penn Mutual Life Insurance Company, of this city, contains more cold facts in the way of evidence of the great executive ability of its President Mr. Harry F. West, ably assisted by the Vice-President, Mr. Geo. K. Johnson, than can be expressed in columns of editorials however profuse and extravagant.

That the Penn Mutual's management is in the hands of efficient workers, whose executive ability is having a telling effect in pushing its affairs to the front, while at the same time safe-guarding the interests of its policy-holders, a perusal of the company's annual statement which appears in another column, will clearly demonstrate.

In fact this extraordinary development, as shown by the statement, is engineered on safe lines and controlled by rigid business principles.

President West stated that 1901 was the largest year the company had ever experienced as a natural result of improved business conditions, and, while the mortality was not as small as in some previous years, it was less than 80 per cent of the mortality counted on as expected. The average mortality of the company for the last five years was but 72 per cent.

The statement shows that the volume of insurance in force increased last year from $210,000,000 to $242,051,692, or a gain of 63 per cent. of the total net amount issued, showing that it required but 37 per cent. of net new business to replace all expirations by death, maturity of endowments, surrender, etc.

The payments by the company for surrender values to those who discontinued their insurance reached the sum of $795,601.17.

The dividend of 1901 abated from premiums or accumulated reached the sum of $1,017,935.96. The assets are now $48,679,021.54 and the general surplus $6,176,610.90.

Philadelphians are, as a rule, deeply interested in the prosperity of the Penn Mutual, for while its business is not strictly confined to either the city or State, it is regarded as a home company, and its 54 years of existence and continued success in our city make it and its office building a well-appreciated Philadelphia landmark.

Architect Notes.

It is rumored W. A. & A. E. Wells, builders, Girard Building, will build the new Belvidere Hotel to be erected at Charles and Chase streets, Baltimore, Md. It will be fourteen stories high and will be built of granite, brick and terra cotta and will be fireproof throughout. The first floor will be finished in marble and mosaic work and will have all the necessary conveniences of a first-class hotel and will cost about $1,000,000.

R. Monroe Stout, builder, Heed Building, has been awarded the contract to build the new residence for Mr. Flick, to be erected at City Line avenue and Bryn Mawr avenue, Bala, Pa. It will be two stories and a half high and will be built of stone. The interior will be in hardwood finish and will contain all the latest and most modern improvements. Plans and specifications by Heacock & Hockanson, architects, 931 Chestnut street.

It is now learned that the contract will not be let to a general contractor for the twenty-two stories office building to replace the Lafayette Hotel and the two-story addition to the Land Title Building, at Broad and Chestnut streets, but that the various branches of the work will be awarded to sub-contractors. President Nicholson, of the Land Title and Trust Company, is taking a western tour, and nothing will be done until he returns.

It will be four stories high and will be built of brick and slow-burning mill construction, the front to be of Ohio stone. There will be two large tanks on the top holding 19,000 gallons of water for fire purposes. It will also have a tower fire escape, and will measure 198x50 feet and will cost about $50,000. —At Norristown, Montgomery county, at the mid-monthly special meeting of the Town Council the question of the $150,000 loan was discussed and the various modes of distribution. A committee of ten was appointed to arrange a statement to be submitted to the people in reference to the equitable distribution. The committee consists of Messrs. E. G. Richards, Ed. Adams, Elihu Roberts, Jesse Fronfield, M. Fennell, Frank L. Smith, Frank Roop, J. M. Fulmer, Lawrence Doran, John Rex. It was agreed that it would be necessary to set aside at least $10,000 for the running of the Municipal Hospital, which, including the floating debt, would leave about $124,000 for permanent paving and the construction of sewers. About $100,000 will be expended in the work of permanent paving, and the benefits of the big work of resurfacing and improving the macadam streets, a vast amount of which is expected to be done in case the people decide at the polls, on the third Tuesday in February, to give Council access to the $150,000 provided for by the loan ordinance. —At a meeting of the County Commissioners, held a few days since, the bids for the improvements to the Court House were opened and the contract for the work awarded to Miller & Sons, of Pittsburgh, Pa., for $165,354. The plans on which the figures were secured are only for a skeleton building. The heating is not included, and this necessary agency in winter will serve to increase the cost of the improvements to a few thousand dollars within the limit of $200,000, which the Commissioners have decided to spend on the remodeling. The heating apparatus, it is estimated by Commissioner Clemens, will cost about $85,000, which will make the improvement cost about $190,000. The present plans provide for the enlargement of the Court House without disturbing the Preston property on Penn street. The high wall which separates the county property from that of the Prestons will be torn down and the addition to the Court House will be built on the line, and will provide three court rooms on the second floor and the other necessary conveniences heretofore set forth in the columns of this journal, and when finished Montgomery county will have one of the roomiest and most up-to-date court houses in the country.

It is possible that at the present session of Congress an appropriation will be made for the purchase of a block of ground just west of Lafayette Square as a site for a building to be erected for the Department of State, the Department of Justice and the executive staff of the White House. The necessity for a new home for the State Department and for executive offices for the President has revived the Department of Justice building project, and it is now understood that the act authorizing the Attorney General to build for himself will be modified so as to include provisions for the other offices liable soon to be homeless. As the Burnham Commission has fixed upon the blocks facing Lafayette Square for the next large improvements of this sort, it is proposed to buy the block bounded by Sixteenth and one-half street, H street, Seventeenth street and Pennsylvania avenue, and government agents have been quietly at work for some time getting options on the land. Meanwhile Mr. Post has made drawings for a building adapted to the large area; it is now intended to use, and experts who have examined them pronounce them the crowning work of his professional career. This building and the new one for the Department of Agriculture will be the first exponents of the fresh artistic impulse given to the city by the work of the Burnham Commission. —Admiral Dewey has submitted to the Secretary of the Navy, from the General Board of which he is president, a report in which he has recommended an appropriation of $62,000 for improvements to the Newport Naval War College, including the erection of buildings and the erection of a fireproof annex to the present structure. —An apartment house will be erected at Connecticut and California avenues by a company organized by the Weaver Bros., with John R. America's Commercial Progress.

The rapid strides which the United States is making toward the commercial supremacy of the world is a matter of no small concern to the old countries of Europe, for as America progresses commercially, they must necessarily decline. Naturally our losing competitors in the Old World are racking their brains to find the cause of the rapid commercial progress which this country has been and still is making. Much of the credit has been given to the abundant resources which our country possesses, which certainly form an important factor in this connection.

The United States has never been cramped for territory, and from the date of its first settlements its people have never known what it is to stand still in the march of progress. Expansion has ever been the key-note of its success—commercially, intellectually and geographically, when the extent of its boundaries did not infringe upon the rights of others. This wide expanse of territory is all adaptable to the use of man, the fertile plains of the Middle West supplying the foodstuffs of the world, the mountain lands of the Rockies abounding in useful and valuable minerals, the Atlantic sea-board dotted with thriving cities and towns whose inhabitants find employment in the mills and factories, and the States along the gulf being rich in the production of cotton and tropical fruits.

However, an exchange calls attention to one important factor, probably the most important of all, which has helped to make this country what it is, namely, American brains. Without the intelligence, energy, alert activity and unflagging energy of the American worker, his success over his European competitor would not have been so readily achieved. In Europe, where all the territory of the various countries is utilized, leaving no room for the pursuit of agriculture on a large scale, where the people eat more than they can produce and wars and large standing armies have placed heavy burdens upon the inhabitants, the brains of the workers must necessarily become cramped and their abilities checked. Thus they are unable to compete with their fellow workmen in this country, who have ever been competing with each other until they have no equal in alertness, intelligence and energy.—Exchange.

PHILADELPHIA, WED'Y, FEB. 12, 1902

HON. SAM'L ASHBRIDGE, Mayor,

DEAR SIR:—Have you observed the insufferable nuisance of flying dust your street-sweeping contractors create daily on our prominent business streets and during the busy hours of the day to the great annoyance of pedestrians and loss and injury to store-keepers?

Is there any good reason why this street sweeping should not be done after business hours, and wouldn't such a method be in keeping with a good and efficient city government?

If not, why not?

Won't you generously spare a few minutes of your valuable time and take a walk down Market street while your white-coated street sweepers are at work some windy day, and then let us know how you like it as Mayor and citizen of a great city?

If not, why not?

EDITOR.

N. & G. TAYLOR CO.

General Offices Now in the Mariner and Merchant Building.

The N. & G. Taylor Company announces the removal of its general offices to the Mariner and Merchant Building, Chestnut and Third streets, where it has had spacious offices fitted up for its use. This change is necessary for its rapidly growing business in the enlargement and development of its tin plate plant; for its trade in open hearth, soft steel sheets for stamping purposes, and for its business in plate, iron and steel, from its works at Cumberland, Md. Its minor offices are transferred to its tin plate works at Tasker and Swanson streets, where it has also erected spacious warehouses for the proper handling of goods. Its tin plate departments have also been enlarged, and a new smelting works, to meet the increased demand for its fine makes of solder, babbit metal, etc., has been built.

This house was established in 1810, doing business at that time in the old district of Kensington; subsequently it removed to Second street above Race, then to Third street, above Race, when in 1845 it built the premises on Branch street, which it is now vacating. It has had a continuous existence as a firm for ninety-two years, being the oldest firm in its line in the United States. It is the sole manufacturer of the celebrated "Taylor Old Style" brand of hand-dipped roofing tin. This old-fashioned tin is made the same as the first roofing tin that was ever made, which was in 1830, in Philadelphia, and sold by it at that time. The "Taylor Old Style" brand covers most of the prominent buildings throughout the United States, and is justly held by architects and the trade as the standard of the highest quality.

It received medals for tin plates of high grade manufacture at the Franklin Institute Exposition in 1874, at the Centennial Exposition in 1876 and also at the National Export Exposition, held in Philadelphia in 1899.—Philadelphia Press.

The Law of Mechanics' Liens.

Ignorance of the law is no excuse. The man who foolishly enters into a contract for work or material, knowing nothing about his rights or responsibilities under the law, must not complain if his ignorance leads him into costly experience.

J. L. H. Bayne, the law book publisher, 23 N. Juniper street, will, for fifty cents, mail a book containing the Law of Mechanics' Liens, with marginal notes, index and forms compiled and arranged by Walter K. Wood and Edmund W. Kirby, of the Philadelphia Bar.

MAYOR'S OFFICE.

Philadelphia, February 15th, 1902.

JOHN N. GALLAGHER, Esq.,

Editor REAL ESTATE RECORD,
46 N. Eleventh street, Philadelphia.

DEAR SIR:

A marked copy of your publication of the 12th inst. I found upon my desk this morning, which I will forward to Director Haddock, of the Department of Public Works. I have had several communications from merchants and business firms upon this very subject, and have forwarded all the letters to Director Haddock, with special instructions for him to consult with Chief Martin, of the Bureau of Street Cleaning, and have the nuisance abated. I have personally observed it, and the complaints that have been made are perfectly justifiable. I will again call Mr Haddock's attention to the subject when handing him a copy of your paper.

Very truly yours,
SAMUEL H. ASHBRIDGE.

Mr. Jesse S. Shepard introduced in council last April an ordinance providing for a 100-foot boulevard from Germantown to Glenside. This new driveway will begin at the intersection of Mill and Chew streets and continue by a winding course all the way to the progressive town of Glenside, Pa. By special agreement with a committee, appointed by Council to look into the matter, of which Mr. Shepard is chairman, the land owners along the waters of the proposed driveway have agreed to dedicate the land for the purpose, and also to grade and provide a macadam roadbed; therefore the expense attached to the construction of this modern thoroughfare will not be borne by the city, but, in consideration of the generosity of the landowners who have donated the driveway, our city fathers should see to it that it be properly fitted up with electric lights and that shade trees be plentifully planted along the route. Work has begun and it is hoped the boulevard will be completed early next fall.

With a view to the best protection of the town against loss by fire, the Board of Council of Columbiana, Ohio, recently instructed its Fire Committee to confer with the firemen, and ascertain what, if any changes of the present equipment of the department were necessary in order to secure the highest efficiency of the department. A conference with the firemen was held recently, at which it was decided to discard the common hose couplings and use instead the improved couplers known as "Quick as Wink." The W. J. Clark Company, of Salem, Ohio, has cause for congratulation in this latest concert to their ranks. It adds one to the large number of "black eyes" that have been given to screw couplers since the "Quick as Wink" entered the market. Columbiana firemen knew of the splendid records made by firemen using the "Quick as Wink" couplers in a number of cities and towns in Ohio and Western Pennsylvania, and knew that they were very much superior. And as it was the purpose of Council to have the equipment of the Fire Department to be of the very best, so far as it went, the committee had no other course than to recommend the sacrifice of their screw couplers and the adoption of the "Quick as Wink" instead. "They 'seen' their duty and they 'done' it."

Proprietor, Publisher and Editor.

PHILADELPHIA, WED'Y, FEB. 26, 1902

It seems so funny to read in old reliable Fire and Water the following squib in his water works items from all points:

"Millions of gallons of water are
"wasted every month in Cleveland,
"Ohio, and it is proposed to sell the
"water by meter."

As though it were possible to waste water. Water is never wasted. It is the power which puts it in place that is wasted

Water itself cannot be wasted, for through the economy of nature there is never a single drop of water less at one time than at another.

Water is always water, although its form and conditions may not leave it available for the uses for which it is needed.

The sewer water, however filthy, is the self-same water that comes down the mountain side as a rippling brook, or that is nestled away in a shady nook as a crystal bubbling spring. It all finds the sea, a common level, and nature's process of purifying distillation goes on endlessly, and nature's forces send it forth again in dews and rains to replenish the store that man might live.

It is the cost of placing water for man's convenient use for which we pay, but not for water.

TO GUARD against the recurrence of such a catastrophe as befell Galveston, Tex., in 1900, from over-flooding by the waves of the Gulf, the three engineers who were asked to formulate a plan for averting the danger have reported that it can be averted by the construction of a high breakwater on the side of the city towards the sea, and by an amount of filling-in, behind this sea-wall, sufficient to raise the main part of the town above the level of destructive floods. The sea-wall, as projected, would be of concrete, about three miles in length and some seventeen feet above mean low water, or 1.5 feet higher than the high water of 1900. Behind the wall the engineers further suggest, there should be built an earthen embankment to a height of eighteen feet above low water at a distance of 2.0 feet from the wall, the grade thence sloping gradually to the level of the fill. The cost of the sea wall alone is estimated at about $1,250,000, that of the embankment at something over $500,000.—Exchange.

Wind Velocities at Various Heights.

The following table will prove useful to architects when calculating for wind pressures:

From photographs and measurements of the waterspout seen off Cottage City, Mass., in August, 1895 Prof. Bigelow has recently calculated the wind velocities, etc., as follows, in miles per hour:

Height ab. Sea Level.	Diameter of Tube.	Veloc. of Rotation.	Vert. Upward Velocity.
Feet.	Feet.	Miles.	Miles.
4,198	3,402	14.1	0.04
3,901	606	94.4	2.50
2,999	250	189.0	9.90
1,802	178	268.0	19.80
1,201	158	300.0	24.70
479	144	333.0	29.70
0	134	354.0	54.60

"Dimensions and velocities like these characterize the largest tornado tubes and, together with the fall of internal pressure by the amount of three or four inches, readily explain destructive efforts, such as those observed at Louisville and St. Louis recently.—The National Builder.

Building Cheap Houses.

We do not know of any section in the United States or Canada where the architects and contractors have not all the work in hand they can get through before the busy season of the present year sets in, and the present indications are that 1902 will witness a greater activity in building circles than ever before. There is one thing, however, that is to be regretted that seems to become intensified year after year, and that is the great tendency to erect the cheapest sort of buildings. Owners insist, when instructing their architects to build as cheaply as possible, and to violate municipal building regulations wherever such can be done safely. This is all wrong as the owner will discover some day. A few hundred dollars more or less in the cost of a building of any magnitude should not stand in the way; it is generally a good investment for the owner in the end. Owners should depend more on the judgment of architects than on their own imagined knowledge or tightness of purse.—The National Builder.

Also has submitted estimates for a stable to be built in the suburbs. Will also make repairs to 2010 Spruce street.

It is reported that John Wanamaker has begun work on excavations for his new twelve-story building, which will occupy the site of the old Grand Depot. It is rumored that the plans of the exterior of this building have been prepared by Architect Kimball, of New York, and the interior plans will be prepared by Mr. Wanamaker's own draughtsmen. Not being able to see Mr. Mitchell, the superintendent of construction for John Wanamaker, by the time we go to press, we cannot verify this report.

The Ohio Valley, from Pittsburg to Wheeling, is teeming with industry; while it is the center of the soft coal and iron interests, and has been for years, there is no precedent for the present business boom throughout the entire valley. There are instances of iron plants which have wrecked their former owners and which have been purchased and rehabilitated by small companies whose stock has been since sold for two and three hundred per cent. above its par value. There is no place in the world where so many magnificent residences have been built during the last three years as in the vicinity of Pittsburg. Thousands of dwellings are needed, and, indeed, there is scarcely a river town in the valley where there is not a dearth of dwellings. A company has been organized to erect an immense steel plant, and an effort is being made to get it to locate its immense buildings, which it will construct, at a point in West Virginia directly opposite Steubenville, Ohio. It is quite evident that other private and corporate interests are not in the least deterred from entering into business enterprises in iron and steel through the magnitude of the U. S. Steel Trust with its billion of capital.

PHILADELPHIA, WED'Y, MAR. 5, 1902

Mr. John W. Bailey.

The death of Mr. John W. Bailey, the president of "The Philadelphia Record" Company, makes the first serious break for many years in a coterie of journalists who, since their early manhood, have been engaged on "The Philadelphia Record."

Mr. Bailey was the head of a working force which represents the old high standard of newspaper work, and which, for ability and efficiency, was unsurpassed in the realm of Christendom.

As its chief, Mr. Bailey was, besides, the personal friend of every member of his force, and he possessed the faculty of inspiring his aids with his own enthusiasm. Having graduated from the case, there was nothing about newspaper work with which he was not familiar.

He was a man of warm impulses; a brainy, practical man, whose personality had a marked influence in making "The Philadelphia Record" the great daily journal it is.

Architect Notes.

At Scranton, Pa., L. I. Lacy & Sons have prepared plans for a school building, to be erected at Hydepark, Pa. It will be of brick, well finished throughout and provided with modern conveniences. The cost will be about $35,000.

Stearns & Castor, architects, Stephen Girard Building, have awarded the contract for building foundation for Davies Textile Company's new mill at Frankford to George Thrusk. The contract for the balance of the work will be given out this week.

A. A. Ritcher, Lebanon, Pa., has prepared the plans for the hotel to be erected at Mount Gretna, for the Pennsylvania Chautauqua Association. It will be three stories high, of frame, well finished throughout, all modern conveniences. A. D. Smith, J. H. Redecker, E. Shenk and J. D. Krause are the building committee.

Newman, Woodman & Harris, architects, Real Estate Building, sent plans out on February 28th for alterations to the Acorn Club, at 1618 Walnut street. Details for this work previously noted. The following builders are bidding: Thomas Seeds, Jno. Duncan, Harry Kuemmerle, Lewis Haven Sons and Roydhouse, Arey & Co. Bids due March 8th.

Frank R. Watson, architect, 1208 Chestnut street, is working on plans for the remodeling of the residence of Mr. Leonard Pickitt, Catasauque, Pa. Plans call for general interior improvements. Also will send out this week the plans for alterations and additions to store and dwelling 3930-36 Lancaster avenue, for George B. Davis & Company.

At Reading, Pa., Muhlenburg Bros. and Noland & Baskerville, of Richmond, Va., are stated to be preparing plans for a large apartment house, to be erected at Shafer and Franklin streets, Richmond, for the Chesterfield Apartment House Company. The structure will be seven stories high, fine interior finish and will be provided with all modern conveniences and improvements. The estimated cost is $150,000.

Building and Real Estate Notes

The partnership heretofore existing between James Foster and John L. Fry, trading as Foster & Fry, was dissolved on February 28, by the withdrawal of John L. Fry.

The costly summer residence and stables of Henry Cochran, at Belmar, N. J., was destroyed by fire. It is the intention of Mr. Cochran to rebuild at once. The building was insured for $20,000.

Joseph Price, builder, 327 South Twentieth street, has been awarded the contract to build the five-story building for Jules Junker, at Thirteenth and Chanceller streets. Plans by Frank R. Watson.

There is a project on foot to erect a pier 3200 feet long for the shipment of coal near the Breakwater, at Lewes, Del. The cost is estimated at $380,000. The Thompson Coal and Coke Company, of Philadelphia, of which Joseph W. Thompson is president, are the parties interested.

George F. Payne & Co., builders, 409 South Juniper street, have plans posted for an office building for the Link Belt Engineering Company, at Nicetown, Philadelphia. It will be a one-story brick, measuring 42 feet 2 inches by 90 feet. Bids due March 5. Plans and specifications by Charles Barton Keene, architect.

The Italian Marble Mosaic Company, 429-31 Spruce street, Philadelphia, have secured the contract for the East High School, at Rochester, N. Y.; amount of contract, $11,000. The excellence of the work done at the new U. S. Mint by this company was the means of securing this large contract.

The Kirschbaum property, 726-28 Market street, it is stated, has been sold to Lit Bros. It is 49.2x160 feet. The price is not given, but as $305,000 had been offered and refused, and it having been intimated that an offer of $325,080 would be considered, while $350,000 was the price asked, it is fair to assume that the price paid was about $325,000. The building is said to be in fine condition and that a rental of $25,000 a year has been offered for it.

Colonel Silas W. Pettit, of the law firm of Read & Pettit, and a former president of the Union League, has purchased Eugene Delano's handsome country seat, "Suelena," two miles north of Bryn Mawr Station, for $75,000. The property comprises thirty-two acres, with dwelling, a lodge and stables. The present owner will make extensive alterations, which will further increase the beauty of the spot, and it will be occupied by Mr. Pettit next summer.

Kaighn & Draper, builders, have been awarded the contract to build the addition to the Victor Talking Machine Company's building, at Front and Cooper streets, Camden, N. J. It will be a three-story addition and will be built of brick and steel and slow-burning mill construction and will have all modern appointments of a building of its kind. Plans and specifications by Hales & Ballinger, architects and engineers, 1200 Chestnut street, Philadelphia.

H. Marion Zane, builder, has opened up and has a handsomely furnished office on the seventh floor of the Hale Building. He has been awarded his initial contract. It provides for improvements for the United Gas Improvement Company on Main street, below Walnut lane, to cost $2300. A second story addition, 20x50 feet, with rough cast eastern walls, will be built. The interior will be divided into rooms, the front of the building will be altered and a new stairway will be built. Work will start at once.

William R. Dougherty, builder, 1804 Sansom street, has plans posted for an apartment house for Mr. Arthur Mallie, to be erected at the southwest corner of Seventeenth and Race streets. It will be four stories and basement high and will have all conveniences. Also plans on boards for a stable for John H. Packard, Jr., to be erected at Bryn Mawr, Pa. It will be one story and loft high and will be built of frame with stone foundation and will have shingle roof. Bids due March 5. Plans by Cope & Stewardson, architects.

Kendrick & Roberts, incorporated, Keith Building, have been awarded the contract to build the new steel plant at Buffalo, N. Y. for the Lackawanna Iron & Steel Company which moved from Scranton, Pa. to Buffalo. The plant will consist of four buildings and will cost about $200,000, as follows: Bessemer Steel Works four stories high, measuring 667.6x101.3 feet; a blower house one-story measuring 84.8x46.6 feet. A blower engine and pump house one-story, 325x81.6 feet, and a pump house one-story having concrete base 250x68 feet. Work will start at once.

George Allen, of 1214 Chestnut street, has sold to an apartment house company the Tabernacle Baptist Church property, on the north side of Chestnut street, above Eighteenth, for the sum of $200,000. It measures 30x190 feet. The demolishing of the church property will shortly begin and upon the site an eight-story apartment house will be erected at a cost of $500,000. As we have previously stated, these plans were prepared by Milligan & Webber, architects. The structure will be built of brick and steel with terra cotta trimmings, and will be fireproof. It is reported that Machin & Brown will do the work.

Some Portland Cements may show a high tensile strength at a short period, and yet be so defective that the work done with them will disintegrate with age. This is due to imperfect composition. The Dyckerhoff brand is invariably of correct chemical composition, and the work done with it is invariably strong and absolutely durable.

PHILADELPHIA, WED'Y, MAR. 12, 1902

Obituary.

Mr. Stacey Reeves, who died on Saturday morning last, was for many years an honored as well as an active member of the building fraternity of this city. Mr. Reeves had been inactive for years before his death, owing to illness.

In 1890 he was president of the Master Builders' Exchange of this city, and was held in high esteem by its members as well as the building interests generally.

Why Not?

In the face of the heavy yearly expenditure to maintain Fairmount Park it might be supposed that, in the entire management of that magnificent pleasure ground, there would be at least sufficient Yankee energy among the officials, from the President of the Commission all the way down the line, to see that the prominent walks, at least, were swept of the mud and pools of water, which were an insufferable nuisance to those who were out for a stroll on Sunday last.

The people pay for these things and they have a right to get them. One practical man on the Commission would be worth the whole of its present figure heads.

The W. J. Clark Co. Full of Orders.

The manufacturers of Lane's patent joist and timber hangers is the W. J. Clark Co., of Salem, Ohio, and so great has been the demand for these popular hangers, the concern has been compelled to run night and day for several months. The company is now placing new machinery, which will practically double the equipment of its plant, through which it hopes to avoid overtime regardless of the demand for its hangers. The secret of the great preference given the Lane hanger is its careful construction and adjustment to angles.

Building and Real Estate Notes

Proposals wanted before Saturday, March 12th for cut stone, iron walls &c. for new Masonic Temple at Williamsport, Pa. Benut & Woodnut, builders, Williamsport, Pa. Plans at Builders' Exchange.

Mr. Harkins, Secretary of the Builders' Exchange, is chairman of a special committee of the Builders' Exchange to present to City Council an ordinance regulating the use of streets for placing building material thereon. The same was placed before Council for their consideration.

Charles Gilpin, builder, northeast corner of Fifteenth and Chestnut streets, has plans posted for conservatory passage for the hospital of the University of Pennsylvania, West Philadelphia. T. Mitchell Hastings is the architect, 328 Chestnut street. Bids due March 12th.

BUSINESS men can protest until the cows come home. One thing is, however, certain—fire insurance companies must make more money through increased premiums to withstand the fire losses or go out of business.

There is another way, of course, but hopelessly impossible, and that is to stop the fires. The new methods of heating and lighting, associated with reckless carelessness on the part of employers and employees, just because the other fellows will pay the loss, has had the effect at least of ruining a host of fire insurance companies, besides impairing the success of others.

The question is one of cold business, and as a fact the fire insurance business does not differ from any other, for if Thos. Martindale & Co. must pay five cents per pound for sugar they cannot sell it at a profit at four and a half cents, and if their whole business was retailing sugar, even under present conditions, the firm would go broke, and that's what's the matter with the fire insurance companies' business, and they know it.

MESSRS M. THOMAS & SONS, auctioneers, 1519 and 1521 Chestnut street, have not only enjoyed a prosperous year through their sales in their art gallery, but Mr. Bare, the manager, informs us that never, in his many years of experience, has there been such a continuous demand for high-class paintings, furniture, &c.

The sentiment for better environment extends from parlor to kitchen to an extent without a precedent.

Messrs. M. Thomas & Sons advertise in our columns a sale of fine jewelry, high-class paintings and furniture, besides a large assortment of imported rugs, etc.

This sale is to begin on Friday next, and will continue until everything is sold.

PHILADELPHIA, WED'Y, MAR. 26, 1902

COMPLAINT has been made by those who are opposing the fire insurance companies' proposed increase of rates that twenty per cent. of the premium goes to the brokers who place the insurance.

While this may be entirely or only partly true, who is responsible for the business going through the hands of brokers but the insured themselves, and, indeed, as part of the sentiment which exists against fire insurance companies at the present time, such a thing as an owner dealing directly with a company is regarded as an episode, and such a customer is a rara-avis in the offices of fire insurance companies.

While fire insurance is as much a basis of credit in business life as either the reputation or the capabilities of the insured, the whole trend in fact, as well as in sentiment, is to establish as hard lines as possible for the companies by entailing upon them brokerage and other unnecessary expenses and then kick because of results created by this self-same uncommercial sentiment.

The fire insurance business is regarded by many persons as an unnecessary evil, which is constantly exacting money, without a compensating equivalent, and under this sentiment any effort to beat a company is considered honorable and justifiable.

A solution of the whole problem is, to add the brokerage to the premium and let the customer who pays his money take his choice.

PHILADELPHIA, WED'Y, APR. 2, 1902

It would seem from the following clipping from the Philadelphia "Ledger" of March 7th, that the design for the proposed "Soldiers' and Sailors' Monument" was not altogether satisfactory, notwithstanding the implication that the architects of our city and State were not in conception and ability equal to the magnificence desired. When, oh when, will we learn to appreciate the ability of our own masters and workers and stop this everlasting grasping for ideals that are never reached.

The city and State are full of architects equal to our monumental necessities, then why this tribute to foreign genius, without a shadow of justice or reason.

THE MONUMENT.

The design adopted for the monument in Logan Square will not find universal popular approval. A plain stone shaft masked by surrounding buildings which certainly will not grow smaller with the growth of the city is not so impressive as one standing by itself in a wide space, the device is hackneyed by the repetitions of hundreds of years and thousands of instances, and it is neither beautiful nor useful. A fountain which might be made as ornate as could be desired, would meet at least some of these objections.

Plucker's Fireproof Casings for Elevator Shafts.

J. J. Plucker, 501 Real Estate Trust Building, is the inventor of a contrivance intended to hermetically seal the elevator shafts of buildings in case of fire, thereby insuring the escape of occupants however high the building or serious the fire.

The attachment to elevator shafts acts like the slats of a window shutter, and can be closed from either of the floors all the way up the shaft by a single movement.

When open the slats admit light and air to an extent equal to the present enclosure.

The slats can be made of asbestos and rendered absolutely invulnerable to fire, as the H. W. Johns Mfg Co., of this city, are manufacturing asbestos shovels which are now used in glass furnaces and which are said to withstand a continuous heat of 6000 degrees.
